II. General provisions

1. The Software and Speech may be used only according to the conditions of the Agreement.
2. A License Agreement for use of the Software and Speech is concluded between the Licensor and Licensee.
3. Using the Software may be done exclusively by the Licensee, whose name is contained in the IVONA Certificate of Authenticity owned by the Licensee. The rights to use the Software are vested with the Licensee and are non-transferable. This License does not allow 3rd parties for Using the Software in any direct or indirect way.
4. Licensor owns all rights connected to the Software, including intellectual property rights. Licensor grants limited, paid rights for using the copy of the Software and generated speech to the Licensee, under this Agreement.
5. The Licensee declares that he accepts and undertakes to comply with all conditions of the Agreement. The Agreement must be accepted by the Licensee in total. A failure to accept any of the conditions of the Agreement shall be considered abnegation of the right to use the Software and Speech. The Agreement is concluded by acceptance of the Agreement and commencement of use of the software by the Licensee.
6. Rights included in the License Agreement apply to both the Software and Speech. Rights under the Agreement are non-transferable, payable, time limited and territorially unlimited.
7. Speech is made available according to the conditions of the Agreement shall be subject to protection as specified in the Agreement pursuant to the Polish Act of Copyrights and Neighboring Rights as of 4 February 1994 (Journal of Laws No. 90/2006, item 631 with subsequent amendments), hereinafter referred to as the "Act"; and relevant international law provisions, treaties, conventions and international agreements. It is forbidden to use the Speech other than according to the conditions specified in the Agreement, the Act, or other current provisions of law.
8. The Licensee is entitled to only those rights, which are specified in this License Agreement. The Licensor provides no other rights. Performance of any rights not expressly granted is strictly prohibited.
9. The License is valid only in combination with the IVONA Certificate of Authenticity containing the name of the Licensee, who has bought License rights resulting from the License Agreement. Certificate of Authenticity is passed to the Licensee together with copy of the Software.

III. License for specialized applications

1. The Licensee may order additional License rights, which extend the rights included in this Agreement. In such case, the Agreement shall be replaced with a new, less restrictive agreement.

2. Exercise of specialized rights for use of the Software or Speech is granted only on condition of an agreement purchased and concluded in written form between the Licensor and Licensee.

IV. License Rights

1. The License granted to the Licensee by the Licensor is valid for the period specified in Certificate of Authenticity with the option to renew the licensing period. Upon expiry of these rights, the Licensee shall lose his right to use the Software; however, Licensee shall not lose the limited rights to use previously generated Speech. Period of the License can be at any time extended by ordering the license for another period of time.

2. The Licensor reserves the right to modify any of the provisions of this Agreement when period specified in Certificate of Authenticity expires. Licensee is obliged to be familiar with current License before renewing this License for another period. Licensee can at any time request for extending the License.

3. The License allows the Licensee to use the Software only for the Licensee's own purposes, such as creation of Speech recordings or Applications, Materials and Multimedia Works owned by the Licensee.

4. The Licensee shall have the right to distribute his own created Applications, Materials and Multimedia Works only for non-commercial use. Speech cannot be distributed as a part of the applications or devices that are offered commercially or used for serving commercial services by the 3rd parties. Licensee is not granted the right for Distribution of Speech alone in such a form as recordings, voice prompts or audio publications.

5. The Licensee shall have the right to Play the Speech with the use of distribution channel belonging to the licensee if only Distribution of Speech does not occur. Applications, Materials and Multimedia Works containing speech are allowed to be published on the website belonging to the Licensee, unless Distribution of the Speech occurs.

6. The Licensee may use the Speech in any form and format, which does not cause deterioration of the playback quality of Speech, as compared to the original version of Speech generated by the Software.

7. The Speech may be generated by the Licensee only manually and only via allowed graphic user interfaces. It is forbidden to create speech neither automatically, nor on the server nor without direct interaction of the user of the computer. Allowed user interface is IVONA Reader or any other graphical user interface designed for creating Applications, Materials and Multimedia Works. Automatic or server based generation of the Speech using scripts or software, instead of the human that creates the Speech using graphic interface, is prohibited.
